

Decorated boats tour Indian River Lagoon July 4 for Fort Pierce Yacht Club's boat parade

7 PHOTOS

5:12 p.m. EDT July 5, 2023

Boats, decorated in red, white and blue, participate in the Fort Pierce Yacht Club's 13th annual Patriotic Boat Parade on the Indian River Lagoon, Tuesday, July 4, 2023. It began at the turning basin just north of the South Causeway Bridge. It was one of many Independence Day events on the Treasure Coast, and one of several in St. Lucie County, including Stars Over St. Lucie in Fort Pierce, Freedomfest in Port St. Lucie, Tradition's 4th of July Celebration, and fireworks with the St. Lucie Mets.

KAILA JONES/TCPALM

People on the Playin' Hooky boat celebrate Independence Day during Fort Pierce Yacht Club's 13th annual Patriotic Boat Parade. Boats, decorated in red, white and blue, cruised on the Indian River Lagoon, Tuesday, July 4, 2023. It began at the turning basin just north of the South Causeway Bridge. It was one of many Independence Day events on the Treasure Coast, and one of several in St. Lucie County, including Stars Over St. Lucie in Fort Pierce, Freedomfest in Port St. Lucie, Tradition's 4th of July Celebration, and fireworks with the St. Lucie Mets.

KAILA JONES/TCPALM

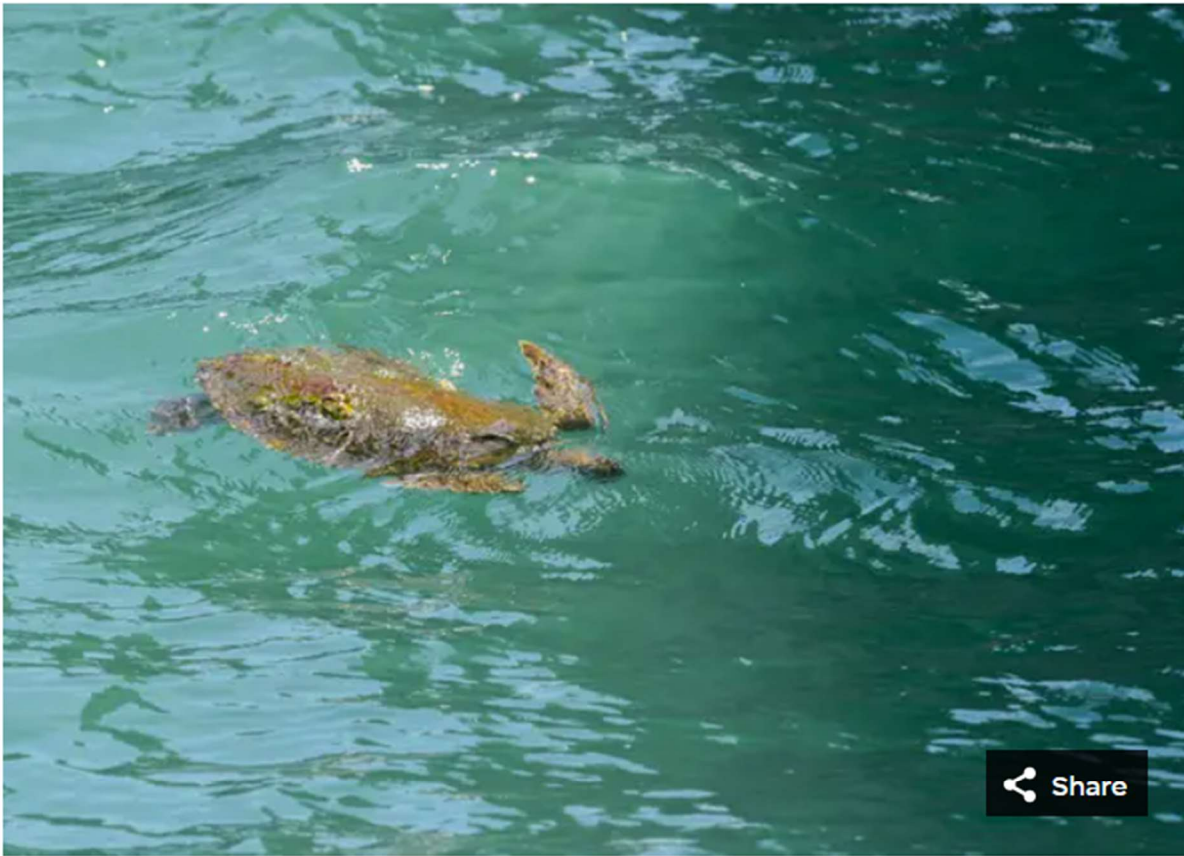

Boats, decorated in red, white and blue, participate in the Fort Pierce Yacht Club's 13th annual Patriotic Boat Parade on the Indian River Lagoon, Tuesday, July 4, 2023. It began at the turning basin just north of the South Causeway Bridge. It was one of many Independence Day events on the Treasure Coast, and one of several in St. Lucie County, including Stars Over St. Lucie in Fort Pierce, Freedomfest in Port St. Lucie, Tradition's 4th of July Celebration, and fireworks with the St. Lucie Mets.

KAILA JONES/TCPALM

Boats, decorated in red, white and blue, participate in the Fort Pierce Yacht Club's 13th annual Patriotic Boat Parade on the Indian River Lagoon, Tuesday, July 4, 2023. It began at the turning basin just north of the South Causeway Bridge. It was one of many Independence Day events on the Treasure Coast, and one of several in St. Lucie County, including Stars Over St. Lucie in Fort Pierce, Freedomfest in Port St. Lucie, Tradition's 4th of July Celebration, and fireworks with the St. Lucie Mets.

KAILA JONES/TCPALM

A sea turtle swims underneath the south causeway in Fort Pierce, Tuesday, July 4, 2023.

KAILA JONES/TCPALM

Boats, decorated in red, white and blue, participate in the Fort Pierce Yacht Club's 13th annual Patriotic Boat Parade on the Indian River Lagoon, Tuesday, July 4, 2023. It began at the turning basin just north of the South Causeway Bridge. It was one of many Independence Day events on the Treasure Coast, and one of several in St. Lucie County, including Stars Over St. Lucie in Fort Pierce, Freedomfest in Port St. Lucie, Tradition's 4th of July Celebration, and fireworks with the St. Lucie Mets.

KAILA JONES/TCPALM

Boats, decorated in red, white and blue, participate in the Fort Pierce Yacht Club's 13th annual Patriotic Boat Parade on the Indian River Lagoon, Tuesday, July 4, 2023. It began at the turning basin just north of the South Causeway Bridge. It was one of many Independence Day events on the Treasure Coast, and one of several in St. Lucie County, including Stars Over St. Lucie in Fort Pierce, Freedomfest in Port St. Lucie, Tradition's 4th of July Celebration, and fireworks with the St. Lucie Mets.

KAILA JONES/TCPALM