

St. Lucie News Tribune

TREASURE COAST NEWSPAPERS

WEDNESDAY, JULY 5, 2023 | TCPALM.COM

PART OF THE USA TODAY NETWORK

A DAY OF FAMILY FUN FOR FOURTH OF JULY

People on the Playin' Hooky boat celebrate the Fourth during Fort Pierce Yacht Club's 13th annual event where boats decorated in red, white and blue cruised in the lagoon beginning at the turning basin just north of the South Causeway Bridge. It was one of many celebrations Tuesday, including Stars Over St. Lucie in Fort Pierce, the Sebastian Freedom Festival with a parade, the Vero Beach Independence Day on the Indian River, Freedomfest in Port St. Lucie, Tradition's Fourth of July Celebration, Stuart's Family Fun Fourth of July, and fireworks with the St. Lucie Mets. Indiantown had its festival on Saturday. KAILA JONES/TCPALM

TRUMP TRIAL

Treasure Coast will form pool for jury

Names to be drawn from rolls in Fort Pierce Division

Lindsey Leake

Treasure Coast Newspapers
USA TODAY NETWORK - FLORIDA

Former President Donald Trump, of Palm Beach, is set to face a jury of his South Florida peers in Fort Pierce later this year. If you're a local registered voter and meet certain other criteria, you could be among them.

The first federal criminal trial of a former president, United States v. Donald Trump, is tentatively scheduled for Aug. 14-25 at the Alto Lee Adams Sr. U.S. Courthouse at U.S. 1 and Orange Avenue. However, Justice Department prosecutors filed a motion to postpone proceedings until December. The timing is up to U.S. District Judge Aileen Cannon, a 2020 Trump

See JURY, Page 16A

Fort Pierce, 19th in US for